

LIME CLASS

A Fantastic February! Our focus in maths this term has been patterns and positional language. We used different Velcro tasks, building blocks, and our stepping stones to make patterns. We used different items and equipment around the classroom to practise our positional language. We had lots of sensory fun for valentines day, Jelly, cornflour (pink) and pink edible playdough which we added rose scent to, the children had lots of fun!

