

Pink Class

In Pink class this month we have been sharing books. The children especially enjoy the noisy books. As part of our communication lessons we have been interacting with the adults, pointing at things to answer questions that the adult has asked, i.e Where is the panda? Can you show me the trees?

