

BRONZE CLASS

Bronze class have settled back into school. It has been nice to hear about their adventures over the summer. We have been joined by Mrs Corner as our Learning Support Assistant who has helped all the students, including with their communication. As you will see below this has been a focus in English. Students have enjoyed watching 'Would I lie to you', then playing the game. Along with taking turns when helping a student to guess a mystery picture.

