

BRONZE CLASS

Bronze class have been enjoying their usual lessons and activities. Yet, this half term they have really looked forward to Friday afternoons, as it is time for Rock Steady. A teacher comes into Hollywater with all the instruments and the students build on their musical skills each session so by the end they can play a song together. Favourites have been 'We will rock you' and 'Another brick in the wall'.

