

In maths we have been learning to recognise and count numbers. We have been ordering them in sequential order and played a few fun interactive games on the whiteboard to embed our counting skills. We also used objects to practise our counting putting the correct amount of items on the correct number.

