

YELLOW CLASS

This month we have been working really hard in maths. Our focus has been capacity and starting to make comparisons between full and empty. Some of us have even been able to order and describe different capacities including full, half full and empty.

