

Purple Class Monthly Update: April

In April , we discovered the story ' Jack and the Bean Stalk ' . We used Colourful Semantics to communicated facts about the story and we planted our own bean seeds, developing our recognition of what a plant needs to grow.

During My Art , we developed fine motor skills and used Yarn to be creative . We practice weaving with different coloured yarn .

In April we worked to develop our communication skills .