

Platinum class

In February Platinum class have been learning about data, we used our communication skills to collect data from our friends in class and other classes.

We recorded the data we collected on a tally sheet, we then discussed our results and identified which item was the most popular and which was the least popular.

Some of us then constructed pictograms and answered questions about these.

