

Aqua Class

Aqua class took part in a visit to Romsey Signal box Museum and learned about how a heritage museum works and had hands on experience with the artifacts and equipment.

Aqua class have also enjoyed going to the mobile farm which visited school and many students enjoyed the interactions with the different types of animals.

