

Bronze Class

Bronze class looked at what VE Day was, and we discussed as a class why we celebrate it. We then had a class party and during the time, listened to the speech from Winston Churchill, along with interviews from people at the time. In Creative Arts we used photographic paper, placed objects on it, lay them in the sun and then exposed the images.

