

Governor survey results - June 2019

Questions	Agree	Disagree	Governor Comments
Hollywater School is welcoming.	100%	0%	Office area is calm, nice display cabinet of pupils work and office staff are very friendly.
Hollywater is a good school.	100%	0%	Pupils are happy and always seem engaged in learning. School caters for the needs of all the pupils. Overarching values are embedded throughout the school. School looks on every pupil as an individual and meets there learning needs.
Hollywater School keeps pupils safe.	100%	0%	Safeguarding is extremely high profile at Hollywater.
Behaviour is dealt with effectively.	100%	0%	Behaviour is dealt with with the child at the forefront of the mind with relevant people involved in decisions.
Pupils make good progress at Hollywater.	100%	0%	Pupils make good progress because I have observed it as a Staff Governor. Assessments as well as observations show this. Pupil data and progress is shared through regular reports and updates at Governors meetings.
Website is helpful.	100%	0%	Website can be hard to navigate. Website has improved greatly. Reminders to parents about the weekly updates and curriculum learning.
Pupils experience a wide range of learning opportunities at Hollywater that meet their needs.	100%	0%	Pupils take part in a range of learning oportunities - newsletter, website, information sent home about trips, special days and events, and information shared at parent consultations.
Cater for the needs of Early Years, Post 16, PMLD, SLD and MLD pupils	100%	0%	All the pupils needs are well catered for across the whole school.
School communicates well with parents	100%	0%	Area that is greatly improving with introduction of workshops, weekly reviews and parent events. School tries hard in this area.
Parent events - anything you would change	0%	100%	Events were a huge success and helped parents understand, in a fun and relaxed environment, some of the various ways in which pupils are taught at school. It also allowed parents to engage with each other, engage with staff and other pupils in the class.